

EMPOWERING YOUTH TO CRITICALLY ANALYSE FAKE NEWS

NEWSLETTER 3 - PROJECT RESULTS

January 2022

Workshops

30+ face to face and online activities, helping 600+ young people from Romania, Spain, Italy, Poland and France to develop critical thinking skills, learn to recognize fake news and analyze information circulating on social networks.

Seminars

5 seminars, workshops, roundtables and conferences, providing 100+ teachers and youth workers with tools and online instruments to teach their trainees new techniques to examine news and recognize fake news.

Magazine

<https://trainingclub.eu/magazine/>

A collection of 14 tried and tested non-formal teaching methods and education tools implemented by project partners and translated in RO | IT | SP | PL | FR to empower youth to critically analyse fake news.

Online course

300+ young people across Europe joined the How to Spot Fake News course and learned how the news are fabricated to transmit messages. 1000+ youth learn with us and improve their skills <https://courses.trainingclub.eu/>

Empowering youth to critically analyse fake news

Facebook community

35+ youth organizations, shared more than 200 posts with the intention to limit the spread of Fake news and online disinformation, helping 750+ members to adhere to our initiative to say #NoFakeNews.

Strategy

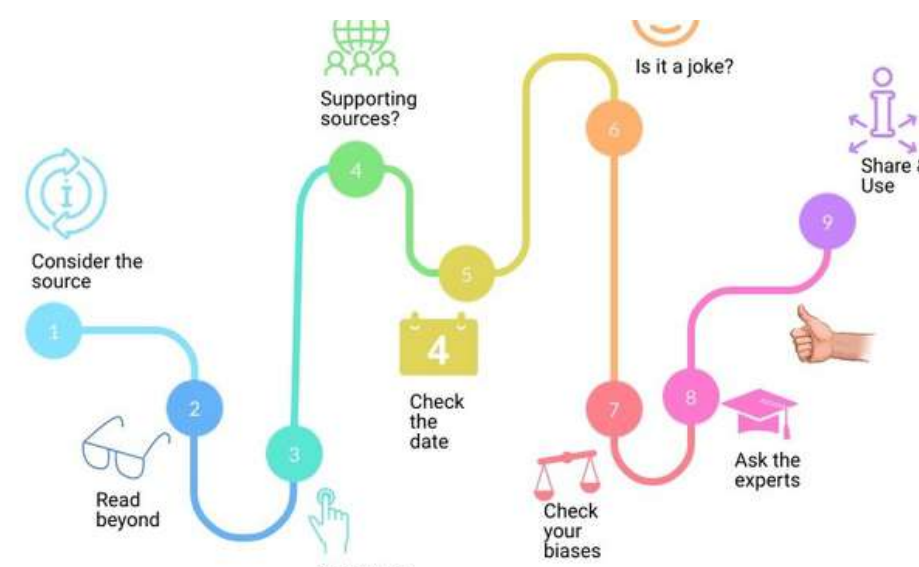

20 good practices used by youth workers and one strategy of intervention with tips and tricks to strengthen the capacity of youth organizations to support youth for dealing with Fake news and misinformation.

Toolbox

A toolbox with 12 fact checking websites and 12 online games and web Apps designed to develop critical thinking abilities, piloted and reviewed by 30 youth workers before integrating in their activities with young people.

Article

Academic article with the title An Appropriate Set of Skills for Limiting the Spread of Fake News authored by partners and published in a well recognized journal for multidimensional education reaching 500+ scientists every year.

Contact

<https://www.facebook.com/TrainingClubT4E>

<https://www.instagram.com/trainingclub.eu/>

<https://trainingclub.eu/fake-news/>

+40 723 194 474

office@team4excellence.ro

